Thwart Scheme, Looked Like Pigeon Drop

Two women intent on working the age-old 'pigeon drop' game on an elderly woman, this week were thwarted by the prompt action of the intended victim's daughter.

Detectives, standing by a downtown bank, moved in and captured a suspect, identified as Deann Jones, 22, 3211 Woodlawn, in Chicago. She has been booked on investigation of dealing over $20.

The victim who got away was Mrs. Pearl White, 71, of 4249 A. Fairfax. Her daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Woods, contacted John Seiders, vice president of the Bank of St. Louis, where Mrs. White told her of a suspicious offer.

The older woman, Mrs. White, told her daughter a woman, later identified as Deann Jones, walked up and began a conversation. While the two were on the street, a third woman, walked up, saying she had just found a purse containing a large sum of money.

This third woman promised to share the money with Mrs. White and the suspect, if each could put up $200 to show 'good faith.'

Mrs. White went home and procured her bank book but when she got to the bank, it had closed for the day. The two women called a promise that Mrs. White would meet them at the bank Monday.

On hearing of this, Mrs. White and Seiders called police. Detectives Chester White and Gene Barnwell, 14th district, walked inside the bank Monday. Mrs. White appeared and withdrew $200, accompanied by Deann Jones, police said.

Another woman, who appeared to be about 30, tried to take the money. When Mrs. White obtained the money, she was arrested.

NNPA Workshop Publishers Here For 3-Day Meet

Gov. Collins CORE Threatens To Move Against Boyds Department Store

The nation's leading publishers and editors of Negro newspapers gathered in St. Louis this week in attendance at the annual mid-winter meeting of the National Newspaper Publishers Association.

The three day session, which opened Thursday night with a banquet speech by Gov. Leroy Collins, director of the Community Relations Service, will close Saturday noon with an NNPA board meeting.

The sessions cover the three vital phases of newspaper production: advertising, circulation and news.

Parke Gibson, senior consultant of the New York firm handling the news, Eugene Liza, advertising director, St. Louis Argus; George Moschonas, Chicago manager of Associated Publishers, Inc.

A panel on classified advertising included: John Haggerty, a national advertising director, St. Louis Globe Democrat; Isalm Ledwith, publisher, New Crusader; Gerry Charles Loomis, advertising director, Cleveland Call and Banner.

Friday afternoon sessions included discussion of new methods of distribution with James Brown, circulation manager, The Call, Kansas City; L. H. Quinn, general manager, Michigan Chronicle; Joseph Ernst, Home Delivery manager, St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Major speakers for the weekend are the St. Louis Argus, the St. Louis American and the Star. St. Louis Crusader, Frank L. Stanley, Jr., publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal, is president of the association.

The St. Louis CORE has threatened "direct action" against Boyds clothing store unless a larger percentage of Negroes is hired.

According to Bruce Rabin, CORE chairman, a total number of Negroes was hired in the downtown store, after discussion of employment problems at Boyds, several years ago.

In a letter to Charles Wheeler, president of Boyds, Rabin commented, "In view of the large number of Negroes working in sales and clerical positions, and the huge volume of Negro business, CORE feels that further discussions are needed to clarify your present hiring policies and practices."

Rabin also warned, "our group will not tolerate any further action against Boyds, unless the store will agree to talk."

CORE charges that officials of the St. Louis CORE have failed to meet with the organization in an effort to iron out the employment problem. CORE also charged that officials of the St. Louis CORE have failed to meet with the organization in an effort to iron out the employment problem.

Miss. Gets Giant Integration Suit

61 Parents Listed In Complaint

MOBS POINT, Miss.—The largest number of Mississippi Negroes ever to register a complaint of desegregation of a school system was filed here this week.

The NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund representing the parents of school age Negro youth urged the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi to give immediate consideration to their charges against the "segregated, dual-standard" school system of Mob's Point.

This small Mississippi town, having only 6,000 elementary and high school enrollment, is the fifth smallest school system where the Defense Fund has sought action against Boards of Education from desegregation. The four other Mississippi counties are Jackson, Bolivar, Leake County and Claiborne.

Legal Defense Fund Attorney Jack Young of Jackson, Mississippi and Derrick A. Bell, Miss. State Bar, Director-Counsel Jack Greenberg and Associate Counsel Constance Baker Motley, all of New York City, have asked the District Court to order the school system to desegregate.

Operating a compulsory busing school system in Mob's Point, Mississippi:

Continuing to maintain a dual, non-school system, a bastion of segregation.

Assigning teachers, principals on the basis of the race of the Negro parent by Negro schools to segregate white to schools with white students.

Approving budgets, making available funds, approving employment and construction contracts, and approving policies, curricula and programs which are designed to perpetuate compulsory racial segregation.

In commenting on the civil action, Legal Defense Fund Attorney Derrick Bell said: "Miss. Pledge affirms from the very beginning that the state has segregated Negroes by race, color and creed."

The Legal Defense Fund is seeking a Court-ordered desegregation plan for the state in 1954.

Mayor Tucker Has Earned Negro Support--McNeal Speaks To 18th Ward Demo Group

In a speech Thursday night to an audience of more than 500 persons at the headquarters of the 18th Ward Regular Democratic Organization, State Senator T. D. McNeal said that he is supporting Mayor Tucker for reelection because he believes that:

"Tucker has fully earned the support of all of those citizens who want the best for the city of St. Louis. To continue his stride towards becoming THE outstanding example of what an American city should be—and more particularly of the Negro people of our community."

Sen. McNeal continued: "I believe he is to be merely, ostentatiously, but pathetically right for the Negro people to openly, actively and seriously support candidate for office who have been good public servants for ALL citizens and whose record indicates that they are FRIENDS of Freedom, Justice and Human Rights."

McNeal reminded the audience that in 1950, Mayor Tucker took a position, later supported by U. S. Supreme Court decisions, that the city would not recognize "Tenement House" as a legal status.

And Thereby Hangs A Tale

WASHINGTON—From George Lewis' White Citizens Council of upland as far as segregationists go. About one year ago James H. Mitchell, 37, talked with some of the academics and decided they ought to have an argument. For the first time, George Lewis' story is done in the heart of Virginia and Henry Byrd, Jr., 36, on that end. Mitchell and his associates joined and in two "thunder" sessions to "take over" the group. The Prince George County is one of the most active in the Maryland-Virginia area. It includes several counties, Baltimore and Howard, two in Maryland and one in Virginia. As the joining began, about one year ago and today it is being referred to as an "infiltration." As more of Mr. Mitchell's activities in the "infiltration" are known, the more it is apparent that the "White Citizens Council" is not only active in the heart of Virginia, but also in Maryland and one in Virginia. As more of Mr. Mitchell's activities in the "infiltration" are known, the more it is apparent that the "White Citizens Council" is not only active in the heart of Virginia, but also in Maryland and one in Virginia.

JOSEPH MITCHELL, FORMER CITY MANAGER of Newburgh, N.Y., who became famous for slanting funds to DePaulian-Children, and who is now the private executive director for the Council all over the country, was more surprised than anyone else to find out that the "take over" in the invading, however, raising himself up to his full height, Mitchell said that the take over was nothing new and that it really nothing secret about the outfit. He said that the "White Citizens Council" had been around since the 1920s and that it was a "securit" check on all year members, they could be card carrying CORE and NAACP members.

North-South Golf Tourney Shifts Dates

MIAMI, Fla. — The 1955 Miami North-South Golf Tournament will be played at Miami Springs Golf Course February 17-21 rather than February 24-28 as previously set, according to a statement issued recently by Dr. Ira P. Davis, the tournament's executive director.

The 12th annual playing of the famous winter golfing event is expected to attract the largest entry in the history of the event, tournament officials announced, while pointing out that the Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., is participating for the eleventh consecutive year as a tournament co-sponsor.

The event is a joint project of the City of Miami and the North-South Tournament Committee, Inc. Coca-Cola also sponsors the popular Hole-in-One Contest, which is open to pros and amateurs.

Pete Brown, the bright young star of the PGA touring circuit and two-time winner, 1954 and 1950, of the North-South event, is considered the pre-tournament favorite. Also a former pro-diving champion of the United Golfers Association, Brown, a Mississippian who plays out of Los Angeles, captured the PGA's 1954 West Open while winning more than $21,000 in his first full year on the PGA swing.

Class-smoking Charlie Sifford, Los Angeles, constant money-winner on the PGA circuit and 1957 pro-winner at its Miami North-South, is expected to return to the N-S scene where he entered last year for the first time in several years. Holder of more UGA pro-titles than anyone save the veteran Howard Wadsworth, Altpitan, moved-to Philadelphia, Sifford, at the time of this writing, was in a 5-way race to equalize Ben Dye's Open title (54-66-80-30), trailing Wes Ellis by one stroke. Young Brown was seven strokes back at 710 for three completed rounds of the Southern California tourney.

N-S golf fans are looking forward to a great competitive display between Sifford and Brown, while not discounting the threat of several past pro champions in the field that is always hotly contested. To be watched is defending champion, Les Elder, Los Angeles, who also won the event in 1949. Other former champions expected to be on hand include Willie Brown, Houston, 1952, Sgt. Cliff Haxington, Fort Campbell, Ky., 1949, veteran Teddy Rowden, St. Louis, 1954 and 1955, and Atlanta Zeke Harshfield, 1955 and 1954.

All-time heavyweight champion, Joe Louis, is N-S defending amateur champion—holds two UGA amateur titles and was runner-up in the 1954 UGA's annual tournament at Indianapolis. The "Brown Bomber" while keeping his eye on the ball, will have to watch the string of such baseball talents as pioneer, Jackie Robinson, N-S amateur champion in 1942, Jim Gilliam, former Digger, who scored, Los Angeles, before the current crop of big leaguers, who will enter the event prior to playing their own tournament the following week.

Tenile great, Alvin Gibson, N-S women's amateur champ in 1953 who has scored five, is expected to be considering entering the N-S pro event to cast her net against Sifford, Brown and Company. Meanwhile Mrs. Myrtle Patterson Hudgins, Riverdale, N.Y., is expected to return to defend her 1954 title. A 3-time N-S winner, Mrs. Hudgins, "The Queen of the North-South," was signed by Miss Gibson in 1952. Other contenders in the women's division will be former champion Elizabeth Wright, New York, 1952, and Myrtle McVey, Dayton, Ohio, 1950, 1950. The tournament also plays divisions for senior men and women.

Gateway Boat Club Project Is Successful

The Gateway Boat Club of St. Louis, expresses appreciation to the supporters of its second annual Wild Game Dinner, held Saturday, January 22, at the Chauffeurs and Butlers Club on Delmar at Taylor avenue. The wild game was the result of skill displayed by members and their friends. Guests at the dinner chose from a menu of barbecued, stewed or fried rabbit; duck, con, or venison (deer). Served with the game were: spaghetti or small white potatoe, broccoli or string beans, stew bread, cakes and coffee. The project had a three-fold purpose: 1. To engender fellowship among the 18 boat enthusiasts plus their wives and friends who assisted in serving the dinner; 2. To provide financial assistance for its annual civic activity of entertaining by boat, the entire group of children at the Anale Miona (Home), and 3. To finance activities that encourage and assist in the St. Louis area.

The elected officers of the Gateway Boat Club are: Commodore Edward Livingston, Vice-Commodore James Byrd; Yeoman-Purser George Carpe; Sergeant-at-Arms William Allen. The other members are Albert D. PATERSON-CHUVALO to Duel at LOEW'S THEATRE—Fighting Floyd Patterson faces the moment of truth this coming Monday evening when he faced rock jawed George Chuvilo, the Canadian heavyweight champ. It's do or die for Floyd who would be automatically dropped from consideration with another defeat. For George, it is a chance at the million dollar rainbow. For a victor, it is a chance at the million dollar rainbow. For a victor, it is a chance at the million dollar rainbow.

wer Patterson might well define Muhammad Cassius the Great as fighting the dangerous, but less classy, "white hope." This column asks Chuvilo by a 6th or 7th round knockout after one of the most brutal ever held in a ring, with Chuvilo absorbing the most punishment—but Floyd not standing up as well.

Lou Gehrig Memorial Award Will Be Presented To Boyer

The 10th annual Lou Gehrig Memorial Award will be presented early in the coming season to Ken Boyer, key player in the St. Louis Cardinals drive to win the National League title and to victory in the World Series last year. The presentation will take place in ceremonies preceding a game at Busch Stadium.

Boyer's selection as the major league player who in 1954 best exemplified, on the field and off, the attributes of the late Lou Gehrig, Hall of Fame first baseman of the New York Yankees, was announced this week by the Gehrig Memorial Award Committee.

The award was presented in 1953 by the "Belle Meade, Missouri club" which joined as an undergraduate at Columbia University.

"Ken Boyer, who is generally considered to be the finest third baseman in the history of the Cardinals, deserves on every count to take his place alongside of the 10 previous winners of the Gehrig Award and to have his name inscribed on the Gehrig Memorial plaque in the National Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y.," the selection committee said in the recent announcement.

In his 10 years with the Cardinals, Ken has played an average of 150 games per season; he was in the lineup for all 169 regular-season games last year, plus all 7 World Series contests. The announcement continued: "Boyer has thus displayed some of the durability associated with Lou Gehrig, who played 1,310 consecutive games — a major league record likely never to be seriously challenged."

Gehrig, who died in 1951, was four times voted the American League's most valuable player (1937-41-44-48). He was league batting champion in 1934 and twice the leading home-run hitter (1934-36), and tied with Babe Ruth in homers in 1931. He holds the league record for most runs batted in during a season (184), three times won the league's RBI title, and played in six consecutive all-star games (1933 through 1938).

Boyer's performance last season won him the National League's most valuable player award and he was the RBI champion of the league with 119, plus six in the World Series. He has been in 7 all-star games, 6 of them in a row.

The other Gehrig Award winners are Alvin Dark, Poore Reese, Gil McDougald, Warren Spahn, Robin Roberts and Bobby Richardson.

Members of the Gehrig Award selection committee are: Charles O. Skinner (chairman), United States Steel public relations director, New York; Charlie Barry, of Philadelphia; H. E. Longline, American League umpire and now on special assignment for the league; Bill Collet, executive editor of the Dayton (Ohio) Journal Herald; Tom Harmon of Hollywood, Calif., sports commentator for the American Broadcasting Co.; Dr. Frederick L. Horva, president of Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.; Glenn H. Mann, of Durham, N.C.; Duke University sports information director; Robert F. Frings, Pittsburgh sportscaster; Whitford Smith, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune; Gilson Wright, assistant professor of English at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio; and Frank Sumner Wright, Palm Beach, Florida, public relations consultant.

Citizens Advisory Comm. Formed By Mayor Here

A citizens committee to advise the City administration on all phases of community improvement and development has been formed by Mayor Raymond R. Tucker, he announced over the weekend. The membership is drawn from citizens members of many committees which are now handling specific functions, plus various individuals chosen to make certain that all community interests with clear concern for community improvement are represented, the Mayor stated.

Among its functions will be to advise on the Workable Program for Community Improvement which is the designation of the plans for the City's participation in federal programs, connected with the prevention and elimination of slums and blight.

It is proposed that the new group create sub-committees with a view to having each concentrate with a particular aspect of community progress.

Among the elements of the Workable Program are codes and enforcement, the comprehensive

A "triple-threat" appliance which looks like a fine furniture piece, sets as an air conditioner when the weather is hot, and at a touch of a button becomes a space heater, has just been introduced.

This new "room conditioner" contains a 25,000 BTU electrically-operated air conditioner for cooling and dehumidifying.

Fully automatic and thermostatically controlled, the room conditioner has sufficient heating and cooling power to handle one or two average sized rooms, depending upon local climatic conditions.

A new venting arrangement provides for a clean outside grill without protruding vents.

Called the Sears "All-Seasons" Room Conditioner, this appliance is just 46 inches long, 28 inches high, and 20 inches deep. It is finished in Walnut and beige with brushed aluminum trim.

The device operates off conventional 110-volt household electric current and can be easily connected to existing gas lines.

The "All-Seasons" Room Conditioner is available exclusively at Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Jewish Causes In Report Cite Negro Support

NEW YORK—Growing Negro participation in Jewish-sponsored demonstrations against anti-Semitism is reported by the Jewish Labor Committee. "In a number of recent instances," states Emanuel Muravchik, National Director of the JLC, "Negro groups and individuals have taken part in protest actions organized by Jewish community. This is a most gratifying trend because it demonstrates that some Negro civil rights activists see their battle for human rights as a universal one, applying to all of the oppressed, no matter what their religion or skin color.

An illustration of this trend, the Jewish Labor Committee leader cited three recent events.

On Jan. 14th, he said, when all of the major Jewish organizations demonstrated in front of a number of German Consulates for an extension of the statute of limitations governing the indictment of Nazi criminals, Negroes participated in the picket lines in at least two cities, Detroit and Philadelphia. In the former city, he said, the Jewish Labor Committee representative, Jack Carter, was designated by the Jewish Community Relations Council to invite Negro participation in the picketing.

The response was a large delegation from the local chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people.

In addition, the demonstration was officially endorsed by two local Negro labor organizations, the Trade Union Leadership Conference and the Metropolitan Detroit Labor Community Association. In Philadelphia, Mr. Muravchik stated, individual Negroes participated in the picket line.

Another case cited by Mr. Muravchik is the official participation by the Negro Trade Union Leadership Conference in the campaign against Soviet anti-Semitism of the Philadelphia Jewish Community Relations Council.

Part of the campaign consists of a series of picket line demonstrations in front of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D.C. March 14th the picket line will be manned jointly by the Negro labor group and the Philadelphia chapter of Jewish Labor Committee.

Business will be chartered by both organizations to bring the mixed contingent to the nation's capital.

It was pointed out by Mr. Muravchik that the last time both groups went to Washington together in chartered buses was to participate in the March on Washington of August, 1963.

The third instance pointed out by the JLC spokesman was a letter by Dr. Martin Luther King against Soviet anti-Semitism which was published in the New York Times on Jan. 15th.

Apportionment Expert Here To Address League

William J. D. Boyd, apportionment expert from the National Municipal League in New York, was the principal speaker at a special apportionment workshop held here January 27 by the League of Women Voters of Missouri.

Boyd described reapportionment problems and prospects as a result of the U. S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" ruling. The meeting was scheduled from 10:30 A.M. to 3 P.M. at the Municipal Building, 5130 Oakland avenue. It was opened to the public.

In addition, members of the League's Apportionment Committee, under Mrs. James Livingston of Springfield, filed a discussion of specific reapportionment proposals before the Missouri General Assembly.

Boyd, senior staff associate of the National Municipal League, is manager of the organization's "Patterns of Apportionment" and editor of the Representation Department of the National Civic Review.

A GOOD VOCABULARY offsets a modicum of bad grammar.

Wagner's War

WASHINGTON—Just in being President of the United States, the toughest elective job in the country is that of the Mayor of New York.

The administrative complexion are much like those in Saigon and for the outside virtually homogeneous. Commissioners and collectors throughout the country are having a great deal of fun at New York's expense these days...

What Wagner is trying to do is to take the issue away from the Republicans in the forthcoming majority contest and next year's gubernatorial contest. He is carrying on the traditions of Eleanor Roosevelt...

PLAYBOY 1964 JAZZ POLL WINNER... After more than two consecutive years Ed Fitzgerald was replaced by Barbara Brownlee, for first place in the female vocalist slot. Ed Fitzgerald, star of Broadway musical "Porgy and Bess" topped Nancy Wilson (second place) by a small margin, with Ed's scoring in for third prize. It was another landmark for Frank Sinatra, who retained first place for the male vocalist. Other honorees for the Playboy All-Star Jazz Band, in the "Big Bands" category, are listed as follows: Henry Mancini, leader; TRUMPETERS: Miles Davis, Al Hirt, Louis Armstrong and Dizzy Gillespie; TROMBONES: J. J. SMELLED SMOKEFUL PROGRAM RAPIDLY... There's a great need for continuous amateur programs, talent hunts and various other events in the St. Louis City. For one St. Louisian, who got their start in show business via the above mentioned vehicles, were very disappointed upon their return home recently. So-called "Miss Mary Hardy" (Vocifer Wilson and Barbara Brownlee) were credited the writers' talent shows as the right pathway, may receive their "entertainment" exhibitions via various presentations.

Buddy Lonesome's "HELL-BOX"

Attack On Reverend King!

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, on Sunday our foremost integration leader, got punched in the face, knocked down and kicked by a white bigot in Selma, Alabama. The attacker was quickly released by police who had been standing by in front of a police station where he was booked... and later fined $100 and jailed 30 days in jail. The Rev. Dr. King told his followers and newsmen at the scene that the attack left him with no major injuries—except for a slight headache. What is good and worse all happy that the integration leader escaped relatively unscathed.

But it could have been worse, much worse. Although he was just awarded the Nobel Peace Prize and he has been a leader who has consistently called for non-violence in the integration fight, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, his aides and many many followers made some special effort to provide this leader with safeguards to prevent the recurrence of any such similar incident. The Rev. Dr. King is no longer just another Negro leader, his recognition by the highly esteemed Nobel Peace selection committee attests to his world-wide status as an international leader.

This man has been a tremendous lot of good for not only the Negro in the south, but the people in the south and not only the Negro in the North, but the people in the North. No one can deny that the Rev. Martin Luther King is a leader of first rank. Why then should there be such apparent reluctance on the part of his followers to offer this great man adequate protection? What with the great numbers of irrational bigots in the south, it's an event that this won't be the last attempt to harm Martin Luther King... so let the precautions begin now!

If a relatively obscure leader, such as Elijah Muhammad, who leads the Black Muslims, can be offered great numbers of men to go on the street... On any corner can tell you that Martin Luther King protect him, then why not with Martin Luther? Certainly any man King is far more important to our scheme of things, and the fight for wholesale equality, than Elijah Muhammad. In fact, the Muslims are usually important only in the white man's imagination. No more than that this reporter can tell of, except in New York and possibly Los Angeles... do the Muslims look as an important part of the civil rights movement.

Yet, when Elijah Muhammad comes in town, as he did last week-end, he is treated with the greatest respect and honor by the fishmen (think that's plural) shield their leader as if he were King James. When Muhammad, the Messenger delivers an address, persons desiring to hear him speak must first undergo the relative humiliation of being asked to search of both their pockets and their wallets. If this can be done for a little old man, head of an organization of questionable strength... then why not a reasonable incentive for Martin Luther King, our recognized integration leader?

It may be that King Luther King espouses peace, and he turn-the-other-check philosophy, but... there are certainly some of his followers who can be militant enough to afford some quick, honest-to-goodness protection for Reverend King. We were all lucky in this instance, for the police of Selma, Alabama, moved quickly to nab the wild-eyed bigot attacking Martin Luther King. Next time we might not be so lucky, so let's put some real protection around this great leader. Nor can you call this militancy, but rather self-protection! After all, even though a man be dedicated to peace, that doesn't mean he has to get his brains beaten out... to prove the point!

Janita Is Gone!

The untimely death last week, of Janita Thomas, was a shock. The beautiful wife of Rev. Thomas was looked upon as a happy person, which makes her death even more of a shock. The Rev. William Gillespie, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, where her funeral rites were held, Friday night, summed up Janita Thomas' personality. The minister lamented the absence of the young Janita Thomas' happy nature, she will be sorely missed by her friends... I say!

Texas Seminar To Explore Job Bias

WASHINGTON, D. C. — A Southwest regional seminar on equal employment opportunity will be held February 11 at the Marriott Motor Hotel in Dallas, Texas.

The meeting is being sponsored by Southern Methodist University and the Texas for Progress program of the President's Commission on Equal Employment Opportunity.

Texas for Progress is a cooperative program intended to provide leadership in achieving equal job opportunities. It currently includes nearly 200 major corporations, employing more than a million persons.

The purpose of the meeting, according to G. H. Scott, general chairman of the seminar, is to assist industry in Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico in understanding and implementing the economic and moral objectives of the President's Commission. Mr. Scott explained that STPL is co-sponsoring the one-day seminar at the request of local and regional industry.

"Similar conferences have been held for regional industries in Providence, R. I., Washington, D. C., and Los Angeles, California. This is the first such conference to be held in the Southwest," he said.

There is nothing like a sincere compliment to give you a lift. The lovely Mrs. Thomas was looked upon as a happy person, which makes her death even more of a shock. The Rev. William Gillespie, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, where her funeral rites were held, Friday night, summed up Janita Thomas' personality. The minister lamented the absence of the young Janita Thomas' happy nature, she will be sorely missed by her friends... I say!

Resolve to start the New Year right by seeing that your family enjoys a better breakfast in 1965.

New Year's resolution is not easy to keep if you work or if the family eats at different times. But there is Sunday when you can plan something different—the waffles or French toast.

Your family will especially enjoy either of these "breakfast specialties" if they are served with MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S SYRUP.

You'll be surprised how this syrup improves the taste of your breakfast. It has a rich, creamy, butter flavor with a mellow taste that makes waffles more delicious than you were in. In fact, it's the Original Buttered Syrup.

Why not reverse another Sunday-morning tradition? Cook a few waffles hot cereal, like oatmeal, farina, and cereal. And try MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S SYRUP. It does not congeal or become rancid.

You can buy either a 12- or 24-oz. tin and there is no need to refrigerate.

Before the month is over, be sure to shop for the syrup in the store—continuously displayed in the cereal aisle, start the year off right. Make yours a happier home.

Time marches on and brings about change. As the New Year gets under way, it might be wise for you to take stock and determine if the detergent you are using today for household cleaning is the best cleaning job possible. If you find it does not, then make a change NOW.

May I suggest that you change to "all" because I know it actually outclasses all other leading detergents. I assure you that the knowledge of this product is not based on hearsay, but on a half month of personal experience using it.

In these days of peak building, the Spun Age and progress, a lot of high ends in the washing machine are as essential as the first one or ball of kitchen soap.

To maintain a continental grade level in the household use "all" for its quality.

Use the amount indicated on the package for your load load, and you will have an excellent wash.

A better reason why I recommend using "all" is that it works well in all waters, whether hard, soft, or hot. It's the best for your laundry. Clothes come out of all three clean as a whistle. You can't see the dirt, but you can feel it.

Put aside the detergent you are now using and try "all" for a week. I assure you, I know you will give up with me. It's the best choice, plain and simple.

LUX

As always, special leader than you will find in any soap. It's the only soap that will give you soft LUX BEAUTY SOAP for your skin. I urge you to try it yourself. It makes your complexion so lovely, because it lathers into a silky lotion that softens as it cleans. You will find that the new LUX BEAUTY SOAP is in fact the best soap you can use. Working with LUX, understand your skin with its lotion lather and leaves your face feeling fresh and rejuvenated. You can still be clean with the new special shape that is lathered but has. It is an advantage and easy to store as well.

Another advantage that LUX BEAUTY SOAP has is that it will also add beauty and color to your bathroom. The pink, green, yellow, and blue shades are so beautiful and clean and even the last drop is eye-opening.

The fact that it is so easy to use, available in all sizes and in so many special shades, as well as the fact that it is so popular and convenient to use, is why it is the best choice for you.

Negro-Equality Issue Not Anti-Labor Relations

A National Labor Relations Board decision recently declared that propaganda distributed during a plant election, stating that Negroes have benefited in their drive toward equality with whites by concerted action is not designed to inflame racial hatred and is therefore not an unfair labor election technique.

The NLRB's unanimous ruling took into consideration a previous NLRB ruling that anti-Negro propaganda dispersed during a labor election is an unfair tactic. The NLRB, in ruling in the present case, adopted the decision of John A. Pansilo, regional director of the NLRB Region, and certified the AFL-CIO Laundry and Dry Cleaning International Union as the collective bargaining agent for production and maintenance employees of Arctocrat Linen Supply and Archer Laundry Co., both of Baltimore, Maryland.

The employees participating in the election at the two laundries are predominantly Negro. In the course of the pre-election campaign in April 1964, the International Ministerial Association of Baltimore, and also the Civic Interest Group, comprised of college students, were said to have distributed various pieces of literature to the companies' employees, which the companies claimed were intended to inflame racial emotions. "It was therefore contended that the employees were prevented from making a free and untrammeled choice in selecting a bargaining representative."

Including the Archer and Arctocrat Laundry companies, the AFL-CIO Laundry and Dry Cleaning International Union has now been notified by the NLRB as the collective bargaining representative in Baltimore laundry plants. The other three are Central Coat and Apron Co., Baltimore Towel Co., and the Big's Coat and Apron Linen Service Co. The union has already entered into written agreements with the Central and Baltimore Towel Companies. The union now represents approximately 700 laundry workers in the Baltimore area, as a result of reorganizing campaign initiated a year ago.

Democrats Set Up Group To Fight Discrimination

WASHINGTON — Chairman John Edgar of the Democratic National Committee appointed a nine-man committee Tuesday to carry out the mandate of the Democratic National Convention requiring that all voters, regardless of race, be given an opportunity to participate freely in all affairs of the Democratic Party in every state and county in the Union.

Chairman Bailey announced the committee following his address to the Democratic National Committee at the Sheraton Park Hotel in which he also called for broad reforms in the election laws in various states, North and South.

He told the committee: "I am providing you with a detailed analysis of registration and election laws and proposals to make it easier for our citizens to cast their ballots in federal elections."

Emphasizing the importance of a broad-based electorate, the Chairman said: "I cannot think of anything more important than this in the Democratic process and I believe that we do want a truly Democratic election."

When the motion was put to the general body for the establishment of the committee to handle cases of discrimination, it was seconded by Judge Roy Marshall of Alabama who stood and in which he also called for broad reforms in the election laws in various states, North and South.

The new committee will be headed by former Pennsylvania Governor David Lawrence and it includes the following: National Committee men and Committeemen Lawrence indicated that the new special committee which he heads will hold an organizational meeting shortly and determine how they will proceed in carrying out the mandate of the convention against discrimination.

EVEN IN OLD AGE, men have all the best of it in the, they are likely to die ahead of the women.
